Journal of Capital Normal University (Natural Science Edition)

Reference citation standard

It is advisable to have no less than 20 articles, and unpublished information materials should generally not be cited. The journal adopts the rule of sequential coding for reference citation, adding [] in the citation order in the text, and adding [] in addition to the serial number when recording at the end of the text. Strictly follow the Information and Literatures-Reference Cataloging Rules: GB/T7714—2015 for cataloging; The citation format in the reference list is as follows:

Monograph: [Number] Main Responsible Person. Title [M]. Version (not included in the first edition) Publication location: Publisher, publication year.

Journal: [serial number] Main responsible person (authors should write before and after their surname, list 1-3 individuals, and only list the first 3 individuals for more than 3 individuals, followed by "et al"). Title [J]. Journal name, publication year, volume number (issue number): citation page number. DOI.

Conference Proceedings: [Number] Main responsible person. Title [C]//Editor in Chief. Proceedings Title. Publication location: Publisher, publication year: Citation page number Thesis: [Number] Author. Title [D]. City: Degree granting or thesis publishing institution, year of publication.

Patent: [serial number] Patent applicant or owner. Patent Title: Patent number [P]. Announcement Date or Publication Date.

Standard: [Number] Main responsible person. Standard name: standard number [S]. Place of Publication: Publisher, Year of Publication.

Electronic document: [serial number] Main responsible person. Title [Document type symbol/Document carrier symbol] (Updated or modified date) [Reference date] Obtain and access the path.

Note: All Chinese literature is recorded in bilingual format.
